Chair's Remarks

Beverly showed the attendees the bandage on her hand. She does not know what she did to it, but it hurts and she will see a doctor tomorrow. Yesterday was the fourth anniversary of the passing of her husband Ralph. She found a poem that fit the milestone, and said it also had made her think of Bill B., who had lost his mother.

He Is Gone, She Is Gone by David Hankins

You can shed tears that she is gone
Or you can smile because she has lived

You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back

October 1, 2018 Board of Governors Meeting Minutes

Or you can open your eyes and see all she has left

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her
Or you can be full of the love that you shared

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday

You can remember her and only that she is gone
Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on

You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back
Or you can do what she would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

Introduction of Visitors

Juliana Gustafson introduced herself. She is a graduate student in George Mason University's Arts Management program. She is here to observe the meeting for a capstone paper. She is interested in the tax district support of RCC. She will follow up with Leila.

Board Member Input on Activities Attended

Bill P. attended The Bad Plus at the CenterStage on Sunday. He said it was a very entertaining and eclectic performance.

Lisa attended the Reston Multicultural Festival, which was well attended – she loves seeing the diversity of Reston and the different cultures reflected. She said it is always moving to see someone's family member become a citizen and it was truly an honor to meet some of the new citizens and their families. Lisa said attending a naturalization ceremony should be a requirement for Fairfax County Public Schools civics classes. Lisa's daughter Nicole was married in September. As a social worker dealing with race and diversity, she said it was nice to see the blending of cultures at the wedding. She also noted she was pregnant with Nicole when she first took a part time job at RCC, more than 25 years ago.

Michelle said the Multicultural Festival was fantastic. She also attended Nicole's wedding.

Gerald has been busy with Reston Soccer and PTA.

Bill B. has been attending a lot of meetings, including with the Fairfax County Park Authority and Leadership Fairfax. He said one of the coolest things he gets to do at the Park Authority is to be the headliner at a children's citizenship ceremony at Sully in May. The kids range in age from 4 to 14. He also paid tribute to Frank de la Fe, the former Fairfax County Planning Commission member and Park Authority Board chair who died in September. Bill said Frank left an indelible mark on Reston and all over the county – at the Park Authority, he was responsible for securing about 4,000 acres of land. Bill offered congratulations to Lisa and thanked Gerald for his service. (Lisa was re-elected to her board seat in the 2018 Preference Poll; Gerald will be leaving the Board in November.)

Bill K. said the Reston Multicultural Festival was outstanding. He said the music was spectacular, particularly the sitar. Bev also did a great job at the Naturalization Ceremony. Bill has also been involved with the Hidden Creek task force.

Bev attended the Multicultural Festival. She also performed in the "Two Divas" concert at United Christian Parish.

Executive Director's Report

Leila said the aquatics renovation is on time and on target. There were seven contractors that submitted materials to be prequalified; that process should be concluded by Tuesday. There will be a pre-bid conference on October 18. Bids will open around October 31. The wall construction at the Jo Ann Rose Gallery at Lake Anne is complete. The CenterStage floor has been installed, but the installation of the Wenger-designed traps is not complete as the dimensions were not quite correct.

A new Leisure and Learning Director has been hired. Outreach and Collaboration Director LaTanja Jones had a baby girl, Logyn.

We are in the final season of programming in the old pool and working on all of the planning to manage the transition. We had a three-hour employee brainstorming session on September 11. The Reston Multicultural Festival was a big success, and we launched the PTAS season last night. The Reston Players will open Hairspray this month in the CenterStage. Our Leisure and Learning fall registration numbers are solid.

Leila had the pleasure of being a "celebrity starter" for Sunday's Do It Your Way .5K to benefit the South Lakes High School Food Pantry. She is confident it will be an annual event. The event raised more than $6,000 to benefit Reston families.

Leila said she appreciates the hard work Karen Goff and John Blevins did for the Preference Poll. They handled it without any glitches.

Old business

None

New business

Bill K. mentioned the lighting in the Hunters Woods Plaza parking lot is still insufficient, particularly in the walkway between Ledo's and the Buffalo Wing Factory towards RCC. Leila said owner Edens was supposed to do a lighting study, and that the lamps are deliberately low intensity to mesh with residential buildings. Leila said she will speak to Edens again.

Bev reminded the Board of her Meet the Artists concert Thursday, October 4, CenterStage at 2:15 p.m.

MOTION #4:
To Adjourn the Meeting

Bill B. moved to adjourn the meeting. Bill K. seconded the motion. The motion passed unanimously.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:19 p.m.

Reston Community Center Board of Governors
2018 Preference Poll Committee Chair Report
November 5, 2018

Overview

This year's Preference Poll presented the community with five candidates for the three open seats on the Board. Incumbents Bill Bouie, Lisa Sechrest-Ehrhardt and Gerald Zavala sought reappointment and new candidates Richard Stillson and April Tan filed and competed. Candidates expressed similar views on the need for RCC to be strategic in responding to the growth occurring in the community and to continue its mission focus on diversity of programs and services as well inclusivity that embraces the entire community. Another issue discussed was the current tax rate for RCC.

Participation increased compared to last year's poll. In 2018, 2,052 ballots were cast from the 28,537 ballots sent; this represents 538 more ballots cast than in 2017. Our high water mark for participation remains the highly contested poll in 2013. That year was the last year the indoor rec center issue consumed community interest and still represents the high water mark of participation – 2,221 ballots cast.

The effort to tighten the print shop coordination with our published dates for the Poll was again successful this year. In addition, the implementation of Facebook Live Streaming for the Candidates Forum again generated substantially greater attention to the Forum.

Voting by Zip Code

- 20190 – 605
- 20191 – 993
- 20194 – 443

Ballots dropped into boxes at RCC facilities divided by location:

- RCC Hunters Woods – 64
- RCC Lake Anne – 65

A total of 3 ballots dropped in ballot boxes were deemed invalid. (Invalid ballots have a vote already recorded against the database.)

Total Valid Dropped Ballots - 126

Commercial Ballots Cast – 47 (Still a minimal participation level)

Of the Votenet tallied "online" ballots, 126 votes were inputted by the League of Women Voters and another 1,007 were inputted directly by individual voters. A total of 919 paper ballots were received by Votenet and inputted by Votenet. This is on par with prior years representing a roughly nine percent difference between online and mailed balloting.

Voting Results by Candidate (Rounded)

Candidate Name	Votes	Percent of Total Votes Cast
Lisa Sechrest-Ehrhardt	1426	25
Richard Stillson	1221	22
William G. Bouie	1194	21
Gerald Zavala	1036	18
April Tan	755	13

Recommendations

The Board's decision to adjust the calendar to permit a longer timeframe for the printing of the ballots and related materials was effective again this year. The alignment with the printing schedule worked well again and there was exact alignment between the published date of when voting opened and the receipt of ballots in the mail.

Recommended schedule:

Consistent with this year's scheduling pattern, the 2019 Candidates Forum would occur in the week that balloting opens. The CenterStage will be used. Balloting would conclude in sufficient time to permit the Board of Supervisors to make appointments in time for RCC's November Board of Governors meeting.

August 1 – 15	Candidate Filing (aligned to Fall Registration period; two weeks; Thursday to Thursday)
August 15	Candidate photo and orientation (Thursday)
September 6 – September 27	Voting is Friday to Friday for three weeks; to 5 p.m. on September 27.
TBD based on programming schedule	Candidates Forum – The CenterStage.

Continue these strategies:

1. Have a minimum of one Board member or the Preference Poll Committee Chair attend the Candidates Orientation meeting so that the Board perspective can be provided to the candidates.
2. Provide rules and procedures adopted in 2015 for the campaigning component.
3. Include the full calendar of events on the printed/mailed ballots so the date and time of the Candidates Forum is available in that location.
4. Promote the Candidates Forum broadly as a video experience. Use a script that supports video/Live Streaming of the forum and include the web address for viewing the Forum; the web address is www.rctv28.com.
5. Continue implementing a posted procedure for dropping off ballots prior to the start of the balloting period if the ballots hit mailboxes before the official start of online voting.
6. Put out ballot boxes concurrently with the receipt in mailboxes of ballots should that precede the time the election is "turned on" in the voting database; the online button and voting will be "turned on" at the same time. Signage and instructions will indicate that voters may drop the ballots in them, but should not leave ballots on our service counters or hand them to our staff. Signage will indicate the regular business hours in which the ballot boxes will be available.

Considerations/Staff Recommendations:

In FY19, a new request for quotes from electronic voting providers will be circulated and the potential exists for a new vendor to be successful in that process. The current variety and fees associated with this type of counting agent agreement suggests that process could lower our counting agent cost, although probably not substantially if we request the same level of encryption and security.

The greatest concern we have regarding the Preference Poll process is the large number of returned mail ballots we receive. Sample counting of the three and a half boxes of these indicates that approximately 2,200 ballots were returned to us. Staff is going to consult with the Post Office and our mailing list provider to determine what is causing so many to be returned to us since they are addressed to "Resident" (not to individuals) and are mailed first-class postage.

Another important concern is that our business/commercial addresses are not current and comprise a lot of the returned ballots. We need to develop a standard approach to obtaining or distributing commercial ballots. This subject should be explored by the Preference Poll Committee for the 2019 event.
