Trip Attendee Behavior Guidelines

When attending Reston Community Center trips, patrons must follow the guidelines below.

1. To ensure other patrons' enjoyment of the trip experience, please do not speak during performances or while tour guides or trip leaders are speaking.
2. Please be respectful of the location of the trip. Do not touch artifacts or antiques displayed in historical homes and museums.
3. Turn mobile devices to "silent" during guided tours and performances; mobile phones should not be used during guided tours or performances.
4. No photography or recording devices may be used during performances or in any venue that prohibits photography.
5. While on the bus, speak quietly. Please respect others who may wish to read or nap on the bus. Cell phones should be used with headsets or earbuds only so the sound is exclusive to the user. Users of cell phones who have audio on speaker or turned up loud enough to be heard by other passengers will be asked to turn off their phones.
6. Be sure to remain with the RCC group, and return to the designated departure point on time, to allow the bus to depart on time with the full roster of participants checked in as "present." RCC will wait for a total of 15 minutes past the departure time. If a patron has not returned by the designated departure time, and there is no good explanation for the delay, the bus will leave. Any patron who is left behind will be responsible for their own transportation back to Reston.
7. If you will be arriving to or leaving from the destination using a different mode of transportation, you must notify the appropriate Leisure and Learning program director prior to the trip.
8. There are some trips where alcohol is served or is available. Patrons are expected to manage their intake appropriately. Inebriated patrons may be asked to sit on the bus for the duration of the excursion. Inebriated patrons will be prohibited from participating in future RCC excursions.
9. Failure to abide by these trip guidelines may result in the patron being barred from participating in future trips. Your signature below acknowledging that you agree to follow these guidelines is required.
