Nature of Reston Community Center Exhibits

Since Reston Community Center is a public facility utilized by all members of our community, the nature of daily activities requires discretion in the type of work displayed. Work that is sexually explicit (work that is representational or realistic in depiction of human genitals will be considered sexually explicit by RCC), or is graphically violent will not be considered appropriate to the space. If artwork that does not meet these guidelines is inadvertently accepted, RCC reserves the right to store the work until the artist can be contacted. RCC staff and artists work together to create an atmosphere that is sensitive to the multi-use nature of the facility.

Jo Ann Rose Gallery Information

RCC Lake Anne opened in the fall of 1999 as a multi-use facility focused primarily on visual arts. Since that time, local artists have been able to participate in monthly exhibits in the Jo Ann Rose Gallery, a space where 40 or more works can be displayed. The Jo Ann Rose Gallery was dedicated to the memory of Reston artist Jo Ann Rose. Jo Ann was an elected member of the RCC Board of Governors and an active past president of the League of Reston Artists. She worked tirelessly for the creation of this unique space to celebrate the arts and artists of our community.
