When I turned 21, my Aunt Jackie made me a massive king-sized quilt. It must have taken her months. I thanked her profusely, though I couldn't help but think, "What am I supposed to do with this? I sleep in a single bed." Still, I tucked it safely away, cherishing it as an extraordinary gesture of love.

Years later, I unfolded it and took a good look. Hundreds of oddly shaped, patterned patches – some beautiful, some funny, some somber – harmoniously stitched together into something both comforting and unexpectedly elegant.

That quilt reminds me of our Professional Touring Artists Series. I like to think of it as a living, breathing patchwork that brings beauty, warmth and meaning to Reston.

We open the season with Viet Thanh Nguyen, Pulitzer Prize-winning author of "The Sympathizer," followed by a celebration of the new season in The Leila Gordon Theatre.

One of our featured artists is American Patchwork Quartet, who weave timeless American folk songs with jazz, country, West African rhythms and East Asian flourishes, creating an intricate and resilient musical tapestry.

Some acts bring pure joy and laughter. The Reduced Shakespeare Company returns with "All the Great Books (abridged)." Comedians Aparna Nancherla and Murray Hill will leave us in stitches. "Marooned! A Space Comedy" and Happenstance Theater's "Preposterous!" are whimsical, imaginative and hilarious.

Adding depth and reflection to our series, Judy Collins and Lara Downes will share the stage for a special program marking the 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence. Performing solo and together, they'll reflect on their experiences as two generations of extraordinary American women in music. We're also co-commissioning a new piano piece with Lincoln Center to be performed by Lara Downes.

Navidad Flamenca will ignite the season with holiday traditions from Puerto Rico and Spain. Cleo Parker Robinson Dance Ensemble will bring powerful choreography and storytelling. Zimbabwe's Nobuntu will mesmerize with their sublime harmonies and rising opera star Mandy Brown will explore themes of feminine power in "Seasons of the Witch."

RCC's signature event, the Reston Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Birthday Celebration, features keynote speaker and esteemed scholar Dr. Eddie Glaude Jr., author of "We Are the Leaders We Have Been Looking For," a compelling call to action for justice and democracy. The weekend also includes unforgettable music from the phenomenal Akua Allrich.

And that's just the beginning! There's so much more to discover – don't miss a single piece of the patchwork.

Viet Thanh Nguyen's writing is bold, elegant and fiercely honest. His remarkable debut novel, "The Sympathizer," won the Pulitzer Prize, was a Dayton Literary Peace Prize winner and made the finalist list for the PEN/Faulkner award.

Viet and his family came to the United States as refugees during the Vietnam War in 1975. The New York Times says that his novel "fills a void ... giving voice to the previously voiceless while it compels the rest of us to look at the events of forty years ago in a new light." His voice is refreshing and powerful as he urges readers to examine the legacy of that tumultuous time and its aftermath from a new perspective. Copies of his books will be available for purchase and the author will be signing them.

Celebrate the opening of the 2025/2026 Professional Touring Artists Series with a reception in the Community Room after the show. Light fare will be served.

American Patchwork Quartet (APQ), led by Grammy-winning guitarist/vocalist Clay Ross, binds timeless American folk songs with jazz sophistication, country twang, West African hypnotics and East Asian ornamentation. APQ's sound is a masterful confluence of tradition and innovation, transcending culture, politics and ideology.

APQ resonates as a symbol of unity in diversity. It stands testament to the notion that, from a collage of varied backgrounds, a coherent and beautiful whole can be fashioned. Mirroring America's cultural mosaic, APQ stitches together a story that's both intricate and resilient. The fabric of their music neither feigns tolerance nor presents an overly-embellished image of unity. Instead, each carefully chosen piece dives deep into America's patchwork soul and shares the joys, sorrows and unwavering hope of a nation crafted by shared dreams and diverse histories.

Little Dickens. Short Longfellow. Reduced Proust. All the Great Books. Less is More. The literary canon explodes as the RSC unleashes a comic outrage on an unsuspecting public.

In the spirit of Shakespeare's comedies, RSC shows contain comic depictions of violence, mild innuendo, bawdy language and the occasional rude word. All children (and parents) are different, so we rate our shows PG-13: Pretty Good If You're Thirteen.
